

How observant are you?

The fungi are appearing all over the reserve. How many different types can you find?

These soldier beetles use flower heads to wait for their prey, other insects - how many can you count on one flower?

- Can you find fungus growing on:-
 - cut tree trunks
 - branches
 - soil
- Can you find them on:-
 - the moor
 - in the conifer woods
 - along Risedale Beck

How many different colours of fungi can you see?

This small newt is using the chipped bark to camouflage himself so predators are unable to find him.

Watch where you are walking, especially on damp days and you may see some young amphibians hiding in the grass.

How many big fat slimy slugs do you step over!!? Look carefully and you may see them eating the plants.

Butterflies are feeding on nectar from the many flowers in bloom. How many different ones can you count?

